A Summer Reading Program for Elders with Youngsters

How it works:

- Packets will be available on our website by June 1st for this summer reading program
- Detailed information will include what books to read and specific activities to do together for four different age groups from Pre-K to Young Adult
- Books will not be provided but discussion topics/questions and activities can be viewed/printed from our website: uwfaithmn.com.

The theme for Summer 2027 will be Native American/Indigenous Culture and History.

Reading Retreat - Fall 2027

Reading retreat - a weekend of 10 to 20 women getting together and having several book discussions. As in any book discussion group, the discussion starts with the books but we never know where it will lead.

- The theme will be "What Makes a Strong Woman?"
- 3 books to read prior to coming to the retreat. 1 novel, 1 non-fiction and 1 Young Adult, all chosen from the United Women of Faith Reading Program
- The schedule will be very relaxed with plenty of time to rest, read, walk, etc.
- Starts with dinner on Friday evening and ends at lunch on Sunday
- At Koronis Campus Ministries
- Cost approximately $200 to $220
