

Register by email to: connielulu55@msn.com

United Women of Faith Summer Book Discussion Syllabus

Letters from the Farm, by Becca Stevens is a reflective, spiritually grounded collection of writings by Episcopal priest Becca Stevens that blends personal stories, lessons from nature, and experiences from her work with Thistle Farms, a community supporting women survivors of trafficking, prostitution, and addiction. The book uses farming as both a real practice and a metaphor for healing, justice, and cultivating a compassionate life. Each “letter” (more like an essay) is paired with scripture and reflection questions, making it suitable for devotional reading.

Monday, July 13 7-8 p.m.

Living in Community: Begin with Dirt (3); It's Not What You Believe (7); Old Ways (91); Traveling Light (99); You Can Forget How (106)

Monday, July 20 7-8 p.m.

Self-Care & Sabbath: Cultivate Peace (55); Wild Fruit (64); Don't Wait (67); Nurture Silence (130); Fast from Everything (132); Loneliness of Community (134); Ending Full Circle (141)

Monday, July 27 7-8 p.m.

Prayer: Pray to Get Out of the Way (12); Remember the World Is Our Farm (47); The Labyrinth of Farming (78); You Are What You Grow (80); Whispered Prayers (85); Pray without Ceasing (104)

Monday, August 3 7-8 p.m.

Leadership: Fellowship of Farming (39); Be Bold (42); Grow Tree Roots (58); Imagining (114)

Monday, August 10 7-8 p.m.

Living Your Call: Let the Mission (26); Go to Prison (124); Preach Love (128)

Diversity & Inclusion: Beggars (33); Weep at Injustice (61)

Monday, August 17 7-8 p.m.

Potpourri! Discuss your favorite essays that weren't covered above.